EXPECTED OTHER COSTS

- Travel costs to and from your local agency for your personal interview and English evaluation (varies)
- Travel costs to and from the local Belgian embassy or consulate (varies)
- Travel costs to the airport for your scheduled flight
- Cost of obtaining an international driving license
- Luggage fees (varies by airline and number of suitcases)
- Optional upgrade of the Comprehensive insurance plan
- Any costs for changing your trip after it has been booked

Costs for additional insurances Au Pair Office offers you an obligatory accident and health insurance as long as you participate in the program, this is paid by your host family. You have the option to take out a more comprehensive accident and health insurance before your arrival in Belgium. You have 10 days from arrival to apply for this upgrade at info@aupairoffice.com.

Need for personal funds During your stay in Belgium, you are responsible for your personal expenses. Keep in mind unexpected expenses and costs. Should you not complete the program, you will be responsible for a part of your outward flight and for the entire return flight and you will need to put money aside for this situation. Au Pair Office recommends that you bring at least 500EUR in personal funds to cover unforeseen expenses.

Payments must be carried out within 10 days following the invoice. All prices are subject to printing and typographical errors.*
